The screenshot shows a Google Docs document with the Speakd add-on interface. The document text reads: "I could read this document over and over. Or I could simply use Speakd, and press the 'Play' button. Then I would only have to sit back, and listen! That's helping me a lot with: - Listening to my Google docs in the background - Gaining insight on reading time - Sharpening my speaking skills It's a great tool, and I'm looking forward to the functionalities to come." The Speakd interface on the right includes a "Play" button, a "Stop" button, an "Elapsed Time" field, and a "Subscribe" button.
